

Reconciliation of Disagreement

1. Any disagreements will normally be resolved amicably at the working level. If this is not possible, senior managers at all three organisations should seek to settle any issue. The Chief Executive Officers will jointly be responsible for ensuring a mutually satisfactory resolution and will become personally involved only where necessary.